

Wilmette Public Schools
Wilmette, IL

Grade 5 German Master Map

Month	Essential Questions	Content	Skills
August	How would you meet someone and introduce yourself in German?	A. Greetings	A. Greet other students using appropriate vocabulary
September	How do you meet someone and introduce yourself in German? How do you ask questions to get your daily classroom needs met? How can you use your knowledge of English to decipher new vocabulary in German?	B. Introductions A. Introductions B. Numbers 0-20 C. Colors D. Alphabet E. Days of the week F. Classroom items	B. State name using appropriate introduction phrases A-B. State name of self and classmates using appropriate vocabulary A-B. Inquire about classmates' identities using appropriate vocabulary C. Locate items of given color in classroom D. Label classroom with target language vocabulary D. Identify classroom items when given an oral prompt E. Spell name and days of week in target language E. Write words dictated in target language F. State the day of the week in the target language F. State day of the week following prompt "Today is ..., what is tomorrow?" G. Ask for basic objects and needs using simple classroom phrases and questions.
October	What are the history and traditions surrounding Oktoberfest? How do you best learn vocabulary and prepare for quizzes? How does the German calendar differ from ours? How do you say dates in German? How do German-speakers talk about geography in German? How would you meet someone and introduce yourself in German?	A. Location of Germany in Europe -European countries -international identifying symbols B. Personal information using location vocabulary -Where do you come from? -Where do you live? -I come from... -I live in.... C. Simple negation D. Oktoberfest	A. Discuss origins & traditions of Oktoberfest A. Describe traditional foods A. Describe present-day festival B. Ask/State age, B. Solve simple math problems. C. Ask/state birthdate, today's date using correct grammar. D Locate Germany on map of Europe D. Name neighboring countries D. Recognize German-speaking countries and capitols on map D. Identify European countries using international identifying symbols E. Ask and give information pertaining to where one comes from and lives
November	How do German-speakers talk about family? How would you meet someone	A. Cardinal directions B. Location of cities in Germany, Austria,	A. State location of European countries in relationship to Germany A. Tell where home town is located in the USA B. State location of cities in Germany, Austria and Switzerland

Month	Essential Questions	Content	Skills
	and introduce yourself in German? How are your celebrations similar/different to the celebrations in Germany?	Switzerland C. Personal information using location vocabulary -Where do you live? -I live in.... D. St. Martin lanterns	C. Ask and give information pertaining to which city one lives in D. Know meaning of St.Martin holiday
December	What are some articles and possessive pronouns in German? How are your celebrations similar to/different from the celebrations in Germany?	A. Family vocabulary B. Verb "to have" C. Gender of nouns- definite articles D. Indefinite article "a/an" E. Possessive pronouns my and your F. Negative construction with "kein" G. Advent and Christmas	A. Identify family members -Immediate family -extended family A. Ask and answer personal questions about family B. Conjugate "to have" for pronouns I, you, we B. Employ verb "to have" to report family relationships C. Apply appropriate genders for German nouns D. Employ appropriate indefinite article to report family relationships E. Employ appropriate possessive pronouns to report family relationships F. Employ proper use of "kein" F. Apply appropriate genders for German nouns G. Locate information about Advent season on the Internet -describe Advent festivities -describe Christmas festivities
January	How do nouns differ from German to English? How is the usage of possessive pronouns articles and personal pronouns different in German than in English? What vocabulary do Germans use to talk about pets?	A. Pet vocabulary B. Verb "to have" C. Noun gender D. Indefinite article "a/an" E. Possessive pronouns his and her F. 3rd person singular pronouns	A. Identify pets A. Ask and answer personal questions about pets B. Conjugate "to have" for pronouns he and she B. Employ verb "to have" to report about family and pets C. Apply appropriate genders for German pet vocabulary D. Employ appropriate indefinite article to report about pets E. Employ appropriate possessive pronouns to report about pets F. Substitute pronouns for nouns according to gender
February	How can you enrich your knowledge of geography through German? How would you talk about your house in German? How are adverbs and pronouns used in German?	A. House vocabulary B. Predicate adjectives C. Adverbs D. Pronouns E. German geography	A. Employ house vocabulary A. Ask and answer personal questions about house A. Label rooms of house A. Generate a house tour on cassette or tape B. Describe houses using predicate adjectives C. Use adverbs to modify predicate adjectives D. Substitute pronouns for nouns according to gender E. Locate major cities on map of Germany E. Acquire cultural knowledge of major German cities E. Locate major geographic features on map of Germany

Month	Essential Questions	Content	Skills
	How are celebrations similar/different to the celebrations in Germany?	F. Karneval	F. Acquire information about Karneval and its observance in German-speaking countries F. Demonstrate knowledge of Karneval
March	How can you enrich your knowledge of geography through German? How would you talk about your daily routine in German? How are verbs used in German?	A. German geography B. Daily routine vocabulary C. Present tense verb conjugation	A. Locate major cities on map of Germany A. Acquire cultural knowledge of major German cities. A. Locate major geographic features on map of Germany B. Ask and answer personal questions about daily routine C. Conjugate verbs in the present tense for singular and plural personal pronouns -regular verb -irregular verbs -separable verbs -to be -to have
April	How would you talk about your birthday in German? How would you talk about time in German? How are verbs used in German? How is word order different in German than in English? How are celebrations similar/different to the celebrations in Germany?	A. Present tense verb conjugation B. Birthdays and dates C. Time D. Word order E. Easter	A. Ask and answer personal questions about daily routine A. Conjugate verbs in the present tense for singular and plural personal pronouns -regular verb -irregular verbs -separable verbs -to be -to have B. Ask and answer personal questions about birthdays B. Tell the date on any given day B. Tell the date for important events in history C. Give the time using an analog clock C. Give the time using minutes to, minutes past and the half hour D. Recognize verb placement in a German sentence D. Answer questions using proper word order E. Acquire information about the Easter season and its observance in German-speaking countries
May	How would you talk about eating and drinking in German? How do you express likes and dislikes in German? How are mealtime practices in the USA similar/different to the mealtime practices in Germany?	A. Food vocabulary -breakfast -lunch -dinner B. Using "gern" C. Verb conjugation in the present tense -to eat -to drink D. German breakfast	A. Ask and answer personal questions about meals B. Employ the adverb "gern" to express food preferences B. Employ the adverbial phrase "nicht gern" to express food dislikes C. Conjugate "to eat" and "to drink" in the present tense for singular and plural personal pronouns D. Compare and contrast breakfast food items

Month	Essential Questions	Content	Skills
June	How would you talk about eating and drinking in German? How do you express likes and dislikes in German? How are verbs used in German? How are mealtime practices in the USA similar/different to the mealtime practices in Germany?	A. Food vocabulary -breakfast -lunch -dinner B. Using "gern" and "nicht gern" C. Verb conjugation in the present tense -to eat -to drink D. German breakfast	A. Ask and answer personal questions about meals A. Tell where home town is located in the USA B. State location of cities in Germany, Austria and Switzerland C. Ask and give information pertaining to which city one lives in B. Employ the adverb "gern" to express food preferences B. Employ the adverbial phrase "nicht gern" to express food dislikes C. Conjugate "to eat" and "to drink" in the present tense for singular and plural personal pronouns D. Compare and contrast breakfast food items F. Apply appropriate genders for German nouns